ORDINANCE NO. _____

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING A POLICE RESERVE FORCE FOR THE CITY OF FRANKSTON, TEXAS, PROVIDING FOR THE APPOINTMENT, POWERS AND DUTIES OF RESERVE POLICEMEN.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF FRANKSTON, TEXAS, THAT:

SECTION 1. There is hereby established a Police Reserve Force for the City of Frankston, Texas.

SECTION 2. Members of the Police Reserve Force shall be appointed and/or relieved at the discretion of the Chief of Police and shall serve as police officers during the actual discharge of official duties.

SECTION 3. The Police Reserve Force shall not exceed in number the total number of regular police officers authorized.

SECTION 4. Members of the Police Reserve Force shall serve at the discretion of the Chief of Police and may be called into active service at any time the Chief of Police considers it necessary to have additional police officers to preserve the peace and enforce the law.

SECTION 5. Members of the Police Reserve Force may serve without compensation. Uniforms and uniform compensation may be provided to the reserve police officers at the discretion of the Chief of Police. The uniform compensation shall be based solely upon time served by the member of the police reserve while in training for or in the performance of official duties. The City of Frankston may provide hospital and medical assistance to members of the Police Reserve Force who sustain injury in the course of performing official duties, in the same manner as provided by the City of Frankston for its full time police officers, and reserve officers shall be eligible for death benefits as set out in Chapter 86, Acts of 60th Legislature, Regular Session 1967, as amended (Article 6228fV.T.C.S.) provided, however, that nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to authorize or permit a member of the Police Reserve Force to become eligible for participation in any pension fund created pursuant to state statute, to which regular officers may become a member by payroll deductions or otherwise. Reserve police officers shall act only in a supplementary capacity to the regular police force and shall in no case assume the full time duties of regular police officers.

Art. 998a. Police reserve force

(a) The governing body of any city, town, or village may provide for the establishment of a police reserve force. Members of the police reserve force, if authorized, shall be appointed at the discretion of the chief of police and shall serve as peace officers during the actual discharge of official duties.

(b) The governing body shall establish qualifications and standards of training for members of the police reserve force, and may limit the size of the police reserve force.

(c) No person appointed to the police reserve force may carry a weapon or otherwise act as a peace officer until he has been approved by the governing body. After approval, he may carry a weapon only when authorized by the Chief of Police, and when discharging official duties as a duly constituted peace officer.

(d) Members of the police reserve force serve at the discretion of the chief of police and may be called into service at any time the chief of police considers it necessary to have additional officers to preserve the peace and enforce the law.

(e) Members of the police reserve force may serve without compensation but the governing body may provide uniform compensation for members of the police reserve force. The compensation shall be based solely upon time served by a member of the police reserve force while in training for, or in the performance of, official duties.

(f) The governing body may provide hospital and medical assistance to a member of the police reserve force who sustains injury in the course of performing official duties in the same manner as provided by the governing body for a full time police officer, and reserve officers shall be eligible for death benefits as set out in Chapter 86, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6228f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize or permit a member of the police reserve force to become eligible for participation in any pension fund created pursuant to State statute to which regular officers may become a member by payroll deductions or otherwise.

(g) Reserve police officers shall act only in a supplementary capacity to the regular police force and shall in no case assume the full time duties of regular police officers without first complying with all requirements for such regular police officers.

(h) This Act does not limit the power of the mayor of any general-law city to summon into service a special police force, as provided by Article 995, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Art. 999. Marshal, duties, etc.

The marshal of the city shall be ex officio chief of police, and may appoint one or more deputies which appointment shall only be valid upon the approval of the city council. Said marshal shall, in person or by deputy, attend upon the corporation court while in session, and shall promptly and faithfully execute all writs and process issued from said court. For the purpose of executing all writs and process issued
